- 7.6 Subject to Bye Laws 8.1, 8.2 and 8.3 all Members shall pay the applicable fees for their first year of Membership within one calendar month of becoming a Member, and thereafter on 1st January in each year.

DELL QUAY SAILING CLUB

8 EXCEPTIONS TO THE REQUIREMENT TO PAY FEES

- 8.1 Upon re-application a person who has been a Member within the past three calendar years will be required to pay only half the appropriate joining fee, providing that he resigned without owing any dues.
- 8.2 A Member elected after 1st September in any year shall pay half the annual subscription applicable for that year, and a Member elected after the AGM in any year shall not be required to pay any subscription in respect of the year of election but shall pay, on election, the joining fee and the annual subscription in respect of the year following election.
- 8.3 A Member who, for any reason, anticipates inability to use the Club facilities for the whole of any one year may at the discretion of the General Committee be excused payment of fees for that year, provided that notice in writing is given to the Honorary Data Services Secretary before the final date by which membership must be paid.
- 8.4 Any Member whose fees have been suspended pursuant to Bye Law 8.3 shall have no rights to use any of the Club facilities for the duration of the year in respect of which fees have been suspended. A Member wishing to be re-instated during the year in question shall pay the fees applicable at the time of re-instatement.

9 TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 9.1 If a Member fails to pay any fees that are due within one calendar month of becoming a Member, his Membership shall be automatically terminated.
- 9.2 Appeal against termination or non-renewal of Membership may be made to the Club Members by submitting a written notice to the Honorary Secretary, who shall, upon receipt of such a notice, include the appeal on the agenda for the next General Meeting.
- 9.3 Any person who has been expelled from Membership shall not be entitled to have any part of his fees refunded and must immediately return any trophy or trophies held.
- 9.4 Upon expulsion of a Member, the General Committee may dispose of the former Member's boat and/or trailer if left on Club property, in accordance with Bye Law 20.1.

DELL QUAY SAILING CLUB

10 CONDUCT OF MEMBERS & DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 10.1 Every Member is deemed to have notice of, and undertakes to comply with, the Articles and these Bye Laws.
- 10.2 Any breach of Bye Law 10.1 or any conduct that, in the opinion of the General Committee, is either unworthy of a Member or otherwise injurious to the interests of the Club shall render a Member liable to disciplinary action by the General Committee, which may include expulsion or non-renewal of Membership.
- 10.3 Before taking such disciplinary action against a Member, the General Committee shall call upon such Member for a written explanation of the Member's conduct and shall give the Member full opportunity of making explanation to the General Committee or of resigning.
- 10.4 A resolution to apply any sanction shall be carried by a simple majority vote of those members of the General Committee present and voting on the resolution.
- 10.5 The General Committee or any person to whom the General Committee shall delegate this power, may temporarily suspend or exclude a Member from any or all Club activities, if they consider in their sole discretion that such action is in the best interests of the Club.
- 10.6 The Honorary Secretary or any other person who has received the authority of two members of the General Committee may expel, temporarily or permanently, a Temporary Member.
- 10.7 A Member shall not knowingly remove, injure, destroy or damage any property of the Club and shall make restitution for the same if called upon to do so by the General Committee or by the Honorary Secretary upon the instructions of the General Committee.
- 10.8 A Member shall not cause any communication in whatever form to be exhibited on Club notice boards or premises without permission of the Honorary Secretary or a Flag Officer.
- 10.9 A member shall settle any indebtedness for refreshment or otherwise before leaving the Club premises, or in accordance with any Bye Law relating to the settlement of such indebtedness.

- 10.13 Single, Student and Adult Family Members shall carry out a minimum of two Club duties in any calendar year, as requested by the Club, unless otherwise agreed by the General Committee.
- 10.14 Every Member shall furnish the Honorary Data Services Secretary with an up-to-date address and contact details which shall be recorded by the Club and any notice sent to such address or electronic mail address shall be deemed to have been duly delivered.

11 GUESTS

- 11.1 Members eligible to invite guests shall enter the names of all guests in the visitors' book. The same guest may not be introduced more than four times in any calendar year.
- 11.2 A member of any club affiliated to the RYA (a list of which is published by the RYA) may be authorised to use the Club facilities by any member of the General Committee, or any Member who has been delegated that power by the General Committee. Such authorisation shall specify the dates on which that person may use the Club facilities.
- 11.3 Any person who is a competitor in any race sponsored by or on behalf of the Club is entitled to use the Club facilities within a period of 48 hours before and after the race in which he is competing.
- 11.4 The Honorary Secretary or any other person who has received the authority of two members of the General Committee may expel, temporarily or permanently, any person who has the right to the use of the Club facilities under this Bye Law 11.

12 LIMITATION OF CLUB LIABILITY

- 12.1 Members use the Club facilities entirely at their own risk and accept that:

DELL QUAY SAILING CLUB

- 12.1.1 the Club will not accept any liability for any damage to or loss of property belonging to Members;
 - 12.1.2 the Club limits its liability to the fullest extent permitted by law in respect of personal injury to Members or their guests arising out of the use of the Club facilities; and
 - 12.1.3 Membership and acceptance of the Articles and these Bye Laws will be deemed to constitute consent to the holding of relevant personal data for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998 (as amended).
- 12.2 Bye Law 12.1 shall be exhibited in a prominent place within the clubhouse.

Part 4: Management

13 PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENTS

- 13.1 The Club in AGM may elect a Member to be President or a Vice President as a special mark of respect or in appreciation of exceptional service to the Club.

14 OFFICERS

- 14.1 Only Club Members shall be eligible to stand for election as Officers, who shall consist of a Commodore, a Vice Commodore and three Rear Commodores (Sailing, Cruising and House) who shall be Flag Officers, an Honorary Secretary, an Honorary Membership Secretary, an Honorary Treasurer, an Honorary Data Services Secretary, an Honorary Sailing Secretary, the Honorary Cruising Secretary, and an Honorary Social Secretary.
- 14.2 Officers shall be elected by the Club Members at the AGM in each year and shall hold office for one year, retiring at the termination of the AGM in each year. All Officers of the Club shall be eligible to stand for re-election. No Club Member can be re-elected more than twice to the role of Commodore or Vice Commodore.
- 14.3 If either unwilling or unable to act, an Officer shall inform the Committee who may appoint a substitute to hold office until the termination of the next AGM.
- 14.4 The Honorary Secretary shall:

DELL QUAY SAILING CLUB

- 14.4.1 keep a register of Members' names and addresses, including the category of Membership for each Member;
 - 14.4.2 conduct the correspondence of the Club;
 - 14.4.3 keep custody of all Club documents;
 - 14.4.4 keep full minutes of all General Committee meetings, General Meetings, and meetings of any committees established by the General Committee from time to time, and all minutes shall be confirmed and signed by the appropriate chairman upon the agreement of the General Committee, Club Members or relevant committee (as appropriate) at the next General Committee meeting, General Meeting or relevant committee meeting;
 - 14.4.5 ensure that minutes of all meetings referred to in Bye Law 14.4.4 are made available to Club Members;
 - 14.4.6 administer such insurance policy or policies as may be needed fully to protect the interests of the Club, its General Committee, employees and Members;
 - 14.4.7 maintain contact with the Club's legal advisor to ensure that the Club's affairs are managed in accordance with all applicable laws;
 - 14.4.8 maintain any such certificates or registrations and complete any such non-financial returns as may be required by law; and
 - 14.4.9 maintain the Operations Manual.
- 14.5 The Honorary Treasurer shall:
- 14.5.1 cause such books of account to be kept as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of finances of the Club, in compliance with all legal requirements applicable to companies;
 - 14.5.2 cause all returns as may be required by law in relation to the accounts of the Club to be rendered at the due time; and
 - 14.5.3 prepare or cause to be prepared annual accounts for the year to 31st March in accordance with applicable accounting and reporting standards and to cause them to be reported upon by the Honorary Reporting Accountant and published at least fourteen days before the date of the AGM.

DELL QUAY SAILING CLUB

15 THE HONORARY REPORTING ACCOUNTANT

15.1 The Honorary Reporting Accountant shall:

15.1.1 be appointed at the AGM in each year and shall be appropriately qualified; and

15.1.2 report on the annual accounts confirming their accuracy and compliance or otherwise with applicable accounting and reporting standards and such report shall be included with the annual accounts.

16 DIRECTORS AND THE GENERAL COMMITTEE

16.1 The board of directors (herein referred to as 'the General Committee') shall consist of the Officers and not less than four nor more than seven elected Club Members of which no more than two shall be Associate Members. General Committee members elected at the AGM each year shall hold office until the termination of the next AGM.

16.2 The General Committee may at any time co-opt any individual who is a Club Member to fill a vacancy in its number (subject to the maximum stated in Bye Law 16.1) as an additional member, but a co-opted member holds office only until the next AGM.

16.3 At the AGM each year one member of the General Committee (not being Officers of the Club) shall retire in order of election. In the case of same date of election the order of retirement shall, failing agreement between the members concerned, be determined by lot. General Committee members retiring under this Bye Law shall not be eligible for re-election to the General Committee until the AGM following the meeting at which they retire.

16.4 Candidates for election to the General Committee (not being Officers of the Club) shall be those members of the retiring General Committee eligible to offer themselves for re-election and such other eligible Club Members whose nominations (duly proposed and seconded by Club Members) with their consent shall have been received by the Honorary Secretary at least forty days before the date of the AGM in each year. Such nominations, together with the names of the proposer and seconder, shall be displayed at the Club premises at least fourteen days prior to the date of the AGM.

16.5 If the number of candidates for election to the General Committee at any AGM is equal to or less than the number of vacancies to be filled then all candidates shall be elected if elected by a single special resolution of those present at the AGM and entitled to vote in favour of such election.

- 16.6 If the number of candidates for election to the General Committee at any AGM is greater than the number of vacancies to be filled then there shall be a ballot. If the ballot fails to determine the members of the General Committee to be appointed because of an equality of votes, the candidate or candidates to be elected from those having an equal number of votes shall be determined by lot.
- 16.7 The General Committee shall meet at least every two months making such arrangements as to the conduct, place of assembly and holding of such meetings as it may wish in accordance with the Articles. The Commodore or, if absent, a chairman elected by those present shall preside.
- 16.8 Voting (except in the case of a resolution relating to the expulsion of a Member) shall be by show of hands. In the case of equality of votes the Commodore or chairman (as the case may be) shall have a second and casting vote.
- 16.9 The quorum for meetings of the General Committee shall be five members of the General Committee.

17 OTHER COMMITTEES AND SUB-COMMITTEES

- 17.1 There shall be a Sailing Committee of the Club consisting of the Commodore, the Rear Commodore Sailing, the Honorary Sailing Secretary, a nominated member of the General Committee and not more than eight other Members, plus those class captains together with the Principal Race Officer not already elected to the Sailing Committee. The chairman of the Sailing Committee shall be elected by the members of the Sailing Committee and approved by the General Committee. The Sailing Committee shall have full control over the sailing activities of the club and shall also be responsible for organising annual elections of class captains.
- 17.2 There shall be a House Committee of the Club consisting of the Commodore, Rear Commodore House, the Honorary Social Secretary, a nominated member of the General Committee and not more than twelve other elected members. The chairman of the House Committee shall be elected by the members of the House Committee and approved by the General Committee. The House Committee shall have full control of the social activities of the Club including the management of the galley and bar.

DELL QUAY SAILING CLUB

The House Committee shall have full control over the purchase of intoxicating liquor for supply by the Club, which shall be at its absolute discretion, and shall also be responsible for complying with the "Club Premises Certificate" regulating the supply of alcohol on licensed premises.

- 17.3 There shall be a Cruising Committee of the Club consisting of the Commodore, Rear Commodore Cruising, the Honorary Cruising Secretary, a nominated member of the General Committee and not more than eight other elected members. The chairman of the Cruising Committee shall be elected by the members of the Cruising Committee and approved by the General Committee. The Cruising Committee shall have full control of the cruising activities of the Club.
- 17.4 The members of the Sailing, House and Cruising Committees shall be elected at the AGM each year and shall hold office until the termination of the following AGM.
- 17.5 The Sailing, House and Cruising Committees may co-opt any individual who is a Club Member to fill vacancies in their number subject to the maximum number stated in these Bye Laws. A co-opted member holds office only until the termination of the next AGM.
- 17.6 Candidates for election to the Sailing, House and Cruising Committees shall be those members of the retiring Sailing, House and Cruising Committees offering themselves for re-election and such eligible Club Members whose nominations (duly proposed and seconded by Club Members) with their consent shall have been received by the Honorary Secretary at least forty days before the date of the AGM in each year. Such nominations, together with the names of the proposer and seconder, shall be displayed at the Club premises at least fourteen days before the date of the AGM in each year.
- 17.7 If the number of candidates for election to the Sailing, House or Cruising Committees at any AGM is equal to or less than the number of vacancies to be filled then all candidates shall be elected by a single special resolution of those present at the AGM and entitled to vote at the AGM vote in favour of such election.
- 17.8 If the number of candidates for election to the Sailing, House or Cruising Committees at any AGM is greater than the number of vacancies to be filled then there shall be a ballot. If the ballot fails to determine the candidates to be appointed because of an equality of votes, the candidate or candidates to be elected from those having an equal number of votes shall be determined by lot.

- 17.9 The General Committee and the Sailing, House and Cruising Committees may appoint such sub-committees as they may deem necessary and may delegate such of their powers as they may think fit upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed expedient and/or required by the law. Such sub-committees shall consist of such Members of the Club as the Committee or Sailing, House and Cruising Committees may think fit. Officers of the Club shall be ex officio members of all such sub-committees.

Part 5: Miscellaneous

18 SALE OF INTOXICATING LIQUOR

- 18.1 The purchase for the Club of excisable goods and the supply of the same upon Club premises shall be exclusively and solely under the control of the House Committee.
- 18.2 Intoxicating liquor may be sold for consumption in the clubhouse only to persons over the age of eighteen who are entitled to the use of the clubhouse in accordance with the Articles, these Bye Laws and Rules for the time being in force.
- 18.3 The General Committee shall cause the Club bar to be opened (subject to terms of the Club premises certificate) at convenient times for the sale of excisable goods to persons who are entitled to the use of the premises of the Club in pursuance of these Bye Laws, PROVIDED THAT visitors' names and addresses and the name of their introducer shall have been entered in the visitors' book upon entry to Club premises.
- 18.4 No person shall take a commission, percentage or other such payment in connection with the purchase of excisable goods for the Club. Any profit deriving from the supply of such goods shall (after deduction of the costs of providing such goods for the benefit of the Club) be applied to the provision of additional amenities or the purchase of property for the benefit of the Club.
- 18.5 Proper accounts of all purchases and receipts shall be kept. The accounts shall be reported in each year in accordance with Bye Law 14.5.3 and such information as the Honorary Secretary or Honorary Treasurer may require shall be furnished to enable any statutory return or statement and the payment of excise or other duty or tax to be made.

19 RULES

- 19.1 The General Committee may make and repeal such Rules as it considers appropriate for the good management of the Club and its facilities provided that such Rules are not inconsistent with the Articles or Bye Laws of the Club. All members shall be bound by such Rules.
- 19.2 The Rules along with other policies and information that the General Committee may approve from time to time shall be contained in the Club's Operations Manual.

20 MISCELLANEOUS

- 20.1 On termination of Membership for any reason or if, at any time, any fees payable to the Club by any Member or former Member shall be one month or more in arrears and a boat and/or trailer and/or any other property of a Member or former Member remains upon the Club premises then that Member or former Member shall remove the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property from the Club immediately. If the Member or former Member fails to remove the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property then the General Committee may:
- 20.1.1 move the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property to any part of the Club premises without being liable for any loss or damage howsoever caused;
- 20.1.2 give one month's notice in writing by registered post to the Member or former Member at his last known address as shown in the register of Members and then either:
- (a) sell the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property and deduct any monies due to the Club from the net proceeds of sale before accounting for the balance (if any) to the Member or former Member; or
 - (b) if the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property is unsaleable, dispose of the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property in any manner the General Committee may think fit and deem the cost of doing and any arrears to be a debt owing to the Club by the Member or former Member.
- 20.1.3 reserve the right to charge storage for the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property until such time as the owner collects the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property or until notice has been served under Bye Law 20.1.2,

PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT proper evidence is available to show that all reasonable steps have been taken to trace a Member or former Member and that, when and if the boat and/or trailer and/or any other property is sold, if the Club is unable to account to the Member or former Member for the balance of the proceeds of sale, then the balance of the proceeds of sale shall be placed upon bank deposit account and retained against the eventuality of a claim by the owner (whether he be the said Member or former Member or otherwise) for a period of six years.

- 20.2 In addition to Bye Law 20.1, the Club shall at all times have a lien over boats and/or trailers and/or any other property of Members or former Members that remain upon the Club premises in respect of all monies due to the Club, whether in respect of arrears of fees or otherwise, and shall be entitled to retain possession of the boats and/or trailers and/or any other property until such time as all monies due to the Club have been paid in full.
- 20.3 The clubhouse shall be open to Members at such times as the General Committee shall direct.
- 20.4 Members acknowledge that these Articles, Bye Laws and Rules constitute a legally binding contract to regulate the relationship of the Members with each other and with the Club.
